

IGBT shear testing

Nordson DAGE bondtesters provide high force pull testing (up to 100kg) for specific applications within automotive and materials testing where significantly higher pull forces are demanded.

Shear testing can also be performed to 200kg.

Nordson DAGE can cater for higher pull forces upon request. Please consult us for further details.